A LEVEL results in Barking and Dagenham have improved for the seventh year running.

Grades were up two percent on the previous 12 months with 73 percent of students obtaining A*-C grades, with early indications suggesting most students have secured places at their first choice universities, according to education leaders.

Councillor John White, cabinet member for children's services said: "These are our best ever results and I am delighted that this year we have an increasing number of strong candidates for Russell Group universities and Oxbridge."

"We are very proud of the efforts this year's students have made and look forward to continued record breaking years ahead."

Rocky Gill, deputy council leader, said: "I want to congratulate all of our students who received their A Level results, and I wish them every success for the future."

"The council is really proud of all those who planned to go to university and have had confirmation that their placement is secure.

"It has been increasingly difficult to obtain university places over the last few years, so well done to you all. For those young people who didn't get the results they wanted, we urge you not to give up."

Senior teaching staff at Jo Richardson Community School, All Saints Catholic School and Eastbury Comprehensive School all spoke of their satisfaction that students had succeeded.

Ges Smith, head teacher at Jo Richardson Community School, said students had seen a 'sustained improvement' in the last five years.

Kevin Wilson, head teacher at All Saints Catholic School said his students had seen an increase in the number of A* and A grades. "This is a great testimony to the students, the excellent parental support we receive and the hard work and dedication of the staff," he said.

Pets Corner: Tips for dog car sickness

IT is believed that around a third of all dogs suffer from what we commonly call car travel sickness. Whilst a dog can develop travel sickness at any point in its life, if they suffered from travel sickness as a puppy, it commonly stays with them for life.

Signs of Canine Travel Sickness

- Excessive salivating or drooling
- Reluctance to get in vehicles
- Uncharacteristic behaviour when travelling
- General appearance of being unhappy

The good news is that there are things you can do to help prevent your dog feeling sick.

Travel Tips to Help Prevent Canine Travel Sickness

- Get dogs used to travelling in cars as early as possible in their lives and make car journeys a regular occurrence
- Introduce dogs to travelling short distances

by car and work your way up to longer journeys

- Let travelling by car be associated as a positive experience, such as being walked on arrival at your destination
- Give food in plenty of time before travelling
- Take regular breaks on long journeys and make fresh water available
- If possible encourage your dog to look out of the front or rear window, this will allow them to fix on a distant object (such as the horizon) and should reduce feelings of nausea
- Allow fresh air into the car

If your dog is one of the unlucky ones that suffers from travel sickness even after you have adopted all the tips above, there is now a non drowsy travel sickness tablet that can be prescribed by your Vet and taken up to an hour before travelling to prevent sickness. So wherever you are going in the car, your dog can enjoy coming with you now too.

Book an appointment to speak to your Vet if your dog suffers from travel sickness or visit www.dog-car-sickness.co.uk for further help and information.

Mapping our history

PARTS of the original London Bridge are in Barking – which is just one of the interesting facts it is hoped new self-guided tour maps will show residents and visitors.

Barking and Dagenham Council has produced two guided walks for Barking town centre which have been designed to showcase regeneration and public art as well as offer a flavour of the area's rich history and the local diverse community.

By Pat Higgins

barking@yellowad.co.uk

Children can join in and can take along an 'Explorer's Pack' with fun activities to do on the way.

Councillor Cameron Geddes, cabinet member for regeneration, said: "There are some real gems right here in the borough and we would like to encourage everyone to take a look around."

There are two routes.

The first is the main route, which focuses on regeneration in Barking Town Centre (about 1.5 miles).

And the second route shows off public art and housing around the town centre (about 1.4 miles). These walks highlight some of the recent changes and the town centre's rich heritage.

WHIPPS CROSS: Local GPs want improvements.

GPs to work with troubled hospital

LOCAL GPs have pledged to work with a hospital trust to improve conditions for patients.

Members of Waltham Forest Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) took the decision in the light of a highly critical report on Whipps Cross Hospital by the care Quality Commission.

The health watchdog issued three formal warnings to the Leytonstone hospital after inspectors found it to be dirty and unsafe, with staff not always showing patients the compassion they deserve.

CCG chairman Dr Anwar Khan, said: "The commission's inspectors found some extremely poor care, unacceptable standards of cleanliness and problems with availability and suitability of equipment. They also found that at times there weren't enough midwives to do the job properly.

"No patient should have to experience that standard of care.

"As local GPs in clinical commissioning groups we are responsible for spending NHS money on services that local people need and that means we must work with Barts Health to help them bring about the necessary changes at Whipps Cross Hospital."

He added: "Barts Health trust has an action plan in place to bring services to the standards we want for patients.

"We'll support them to implement it, but we will hold them to account if we don't see the change that's needed."

*The CCG has taken over much of the work that used to be done by NHS Waltham Forest which closed down in March 2013, as did all primary care trusts (PCTs) across the country. All GP practices in the borough are part of this CCG, which has aboard board chaired by a local GP.

Awards finalist condemns decision to throw him out

UNHAPPY: Alfie Best

A FINALIST in the Havering Business Awards has been kicked out over a planning dispute with the council.

Furious millionaire Alfie Best, whose company had been chosen as finalists in the marketing excellence and apprentice of the year categories, described the decision as 'vindictive'.

Speaking from Lakeside Park, Romford, he stormed: "I find it absolutely astonishing that Havering Council would ban Wyldecrest Parks from the Havering business awards after selecting us as finalists in two categories.

"The council then tries to justify its decision by claiming it was because we are in dispute over a planning irregularity on behalf of one of our elderly residents at Lakeview Park.

"They have even refused to reveal who made this decision."

The row blew up last week shortly before it was revealed the local authority was about to serve an enforcement notice on Noak Hill park home resident Chris Peel.

He got planning permission to live in his mobile home in 2009 on condition that an area of decking was removed and hedges planted around his borders - which has not been done.

Jobless Mr Peel, 64, who is suffering from depression and is having counselling is begging the council to let him stay and is asking for more time.

A Havering council spokesperson said the awards celebrated the hardest working residents in the borough.

The spokesman said: "We work closely with judges and are supported by our sponsors to shine a spotlight on those who go the extra mile and do so much to keep our local economy buoyant.

"It stands to reason that we would take a dim view on those who try to besmirch the awards by cutting corners.

"In this case, it was found that Shelfside (Holdings) Limited the shareholding company of Wyldecrest Parks (Management) Limited had been prosecuted and convicted of a breach of planning control by the council and that the council has recently authorised the issue of further enforcement action in respect of Shelfside (Holdings) Limited's site at Lakeview Caravan Park, Noak Hill."

Robber jailed

AN ILFORD man who threatened and stole money from two boys has been jailed.

Snaresbrook Crown Court heard how Steven Harris, 41, of Marston Road, approached the terrified boys in a park at about 5.20pm on Sunday June 16, demanding cash and threatening violence.

After stealing £10 from the children, he ran off from park land close to South Woodford Cricket Club, Highfield Road, Woodford, Essex.

He was found guilty on August 14 of one count of robbery and jailed for 12 months.

Detective Inspector Craig Robinson from Ilford police said: "Harris is a prolific drug addicted offender, who has rightly been targeted because of his offending.

"This offence - stealing money from children - shows the lengths that addicts will go to feed their habit and has resulted in this term of imprisonment. I would urge anybody with an addiction, to seek treatment rather than turn to crime".

I'm An Animal, Get Me Out of Here.....

FIRE fighters rescuing cats from trees may soon be a thing of the past - as animal SOS calls have halved.

London Fire Brigade are considering dropping the service after a campaign to persuade residents to make the RSPCA the first port of call for moggies and other pets in distress instead of dialling 999, proved successful.

It could save taxpayers more than £100,000 a year.

Last year the capital's fire crews were called out to 282 animal rescues - the lowest number since the Brigade started collecting the data in 1999.

In 2011/12 there were 650 animal rescues which meant the capital's fire fighters rescued an animal every 13 hours.

The Brigade thanks its high profile campaign, I'm An Animal, Get Me Out of Here for the drop in pet rescue calls - each one costs the Brigade at least £290.

London Fire Brigade Group Manager Mark Hazelton said: "It's excellent news numbers of animal rescues have fallen and people have clearly taken heed of our advice.

"I'd still like to remind people that if they see an animal stuck somewhere, the first call should always be to the RSPCA, not the emergency services. When fire fighters are out rescuing animals, they're not available to attend real emergencies."

Picture by Martin Dalton

DIG IN: Members of Goodmayes Allotment Society

MEMBERS of Seven Kings and Goodmayes Allotment Society are getting ready for its seventh annual community festival – the biggest to date.

There are around 30 voluntary

Man shot by police

A MAN shot by police has been taken to hospital and arrested.

He was shot in Hale End Road, Walthamstow shortly after 8.15pm on Tuesday by police acting on reports from the public about a person with a handgun.

He was treated for gunshot wounds to his arms and then taken by ambulance to hospital, where he was arrested on suspicion of firearms offences.

The man's injuries are not thought to be life-threatening.

Scotland Yard said the man was given first-aid at the scene until an ambulance crew arrived at 8.20pm.

Police said the man's details were unknown.

A spokesman said the force's directorate of professional standards had been informed and the Independent Police Complaints Commission would also be notified.

Road death

DETECTIVES from the Road Death Investigation Unit are appealing for information following the death of a 73-year-old woman in a traffic collision in Leytonstone.

Police were called to a collision between a motorcycle and a pedestrian outside the library in High Road, at 4.47pm on Thursday July 25.

The injured woman pedestrian was taken to the Royal London Hospital where she died later the same day.

She has been identified as Raxmo Sharif, from Leytonstone.

A post mortem was held on July 30 when cause of death was given as multiple injuries.

Officers want to hear from the driver of a dark Ford Focus that was travelling southbound on the High Road at the time of the collision, and may have been hit.

The driver of this car or anyone who may have seen the collision is asked to call the Road Death Investigation Unit at Chadwell Heath on 020 8597 4874, quoting reference 4915496/13.

The 28-year-old driver of the motorcycle was taken to hospital suffering minor injuries, subsequently discharged and arrested on July 25 on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving. He has been bailed until the 28 August.

TB Capital

LONDON has been branded the TB capital of Europe, with Waltham Forest in the Top 10 worst effected boroughs.

There were 129 reported cases last year, according to the watchdog Public Health London (PHL) - equating to 50 per 100,000 in the borough, and three times above the national average (14 per 100,000).

Doctors have called for 'a concerted effort' to significantly reduce TB level across east London.

PHL Director, Dr Yvonne Doyle, said: "Controlling the spread of this infection must remain a public health priority for London where the rates are consistently high.

"It's a disease which can be prevented and treated, but is deadly if left."

PHL reported 3,426 cases of tuberculosis in the capital in 2012, 42 per 100,000, around 40 percent of all cases nationally.

REACH OUT:
Fans at V

V – we salute you!

By Liz Wade

VIRGIN Media – thanks for bringing us yet another fantastic festival!

With aching feet and a major lack of sleep I will bid farewell to Virgin Media's V Festival for yet another year.

With plenty of highlights and very few low points – well, just a bit of rain really – it has been yet another phenomenal showcase of not just some of the biggest music stars out there, but many up-and-coming artists too.

The Futures Stage saw many solo artists and groups make a mark on their audiences so who knows, we may be seeing them on The Virgin Media Stage in years to come.

It was great to see festival regulars returning to Chelmsford including Jessie J, Scouting For Girls and Olly Murs, to share a few laughs in the Glee Tent with the likes of Eddie Izzard, and to see an unforgettable performance by Beyoncé.

Mix this with plenty of wellies – despite there being no mud in sight – random costumes, luminous face paints, shorts that are, quite frankly, too short, and more than a fair share of merry campers, and we had the ultimate in festival experiences.

Last, but not least, the Virgin Media Louder Lounge. I will miss your hospitality, your wonderful food, your relaxing chairs and your whole psychedelic theme – can't wait to see what you do next year. Only about 360 days to go...

Toyota's safe bet

SAFETY FIRST: The new Aygo range.

UPGRADED safety features and all-round improved specifications are features of a refreshed Aygo range from Toyota.

All versions now come with the same complement of safety features and are equipped as standard with Vehicle Stability Control, curtain airbags, ISOFIX child seat mounts and seatbelt buckle-up reminders for driver and front passenger.

These come along with the ABS, Electronic Brakeforce Distribution and driver and passenger front and side airbags that are established features.

A 50/50 split-folding rear seatback with detachable headrests has also been added to the Active specification.

The new Mode model comes with 14-inch, eight-spoke alloy wheels plus front fog lights, rear privacy glass, LED daytime running lights, tachometer, electric front windows, remote central locking and body colour-matched door handles and mirrors.

The Aygo Move adds air con, leather steering wheel and gear knob and a portable TomTom navigation system with Bluetooth, USB and iPod connectivity which slots into a folding dashboard dock.

A Protection Pack can be specified for the five-door Aygo Mode and Move, providing rear parking sensors, front and rear mud flaps, carpet mats and side protection mouldings. All versions of Mode and Move can also be treated to a Design Pack, adding front scuff plates, chrome trim at the rear and a chrome finisher on the tailpipe.

Fashionable contrasting roof decals are being offered for the first time including Union Jack designs in classic red-white-and-blue or monochrome; a racing chequer design; white gloss; gloss or matt black.

Three and five-door body styles are available across the range, priced from £8,595.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
  - Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
  - Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
  - Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
  - Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
  - Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

MOSCOW GLORY FOR LONDONERS

Athletics

FORMER Barking & Dagenham College student, Adam Gemili, has impressed the sporting world by running a sub 20-second finish in the 200m semi-final at the World Championships in Moscow.

The 19.98 second result was the fastest for a Briton in 19 years and ensured him the second fastest qualifier position. This was a quicker time than Usain Bolt, who qualified in 20.12 seconds.

The 19-year-old went on to finish fifth in the 200m final, a fantastic achievement which has got the sporting world talking. Sportsmen such as double Olympic champion Donovan Bailey and two-time world champion Colin Jackson have been praising Gemili's performance. Star sprinter Usain Bolt has also been impressed, commenting to reporters that he thought the result was outstanding.

Gemili told reporters: "I can't believe it. Honestly that is the best feeling in the world."

Adam, who achieved a distinction in his Level 3 Extended Diploma in Sports at Barking & Dagenham College last year, took up athletics only a year and a half ago. He recently won two gold medals and a European record at the European Athletics Under-23 Championships.

■ In Moscow there were also World Championship bronze medals for Woodford Green athletes Shana Cox and Tiffany Porter.

Shana ran a very strong second leg (50.3 secs) on the GB & NI 4x400 team that finished third with 3m22.69 secs. Earlier in the evening Tiffany won her 100m hurdles semi-final but qualified as fourth fastest for the final with 12.63 secs. Just 10 mins after Shana's 4x400m medal, Tiffany finished third in the 100mH final with a personal best of 12.55 secs, just 0.01 outside the British record.

Woodford Green are busy

WOODFORD Green athletes were involved in several meetings last weekend.

These included the British Athletics Jumps and Throws Meeting, where there were victories for Tom Norman and Andy Frost, the Lee Valley sprints meeting, and BMC Meetings at Manchester and Eltham. The latter saw an 800m personal best from Matt McLaughlin. There was also a medal for Stephanie Howe in the South of England age group championships.

Competing at the BMC Meeting at Eltham last Wednesday evening Matt McLaughlin placed second over 800m recording a personal best of 1m 48.97secs as he closed in on Chris Reynold's U/20 Club Record of 1m 48.3secs.

Matt was back in action on Saturday in the BMC Grand Prix at Stretford, and in windy conditions placed sixth over 1500m with 3m 44.66secs. Ahead of Matt in third was David McCarthay with 3m 43.31secs.

Other Woodford athletes at Stretford were Jordan Donnelly who was fourth in the "C" 1500m with 3m 56.97secs, and Emily Moss, eighth in the "C" 800m with 2m 17.36secs.

The Jumps and Throws meeting took place over the weekend at Bedford, where Andy Frost won the hammer with 68.96m and Tom Norman the discus with 54.64.

Behind Tom, in 5th was Chris Linque with 46.88m, and in the women's discus Hollie Redman was eighth with 42.11m.

Also in the hammer, but with the junior implement Harry Clarke was second with 60.80m. In the long jump junior, Joseph Dewar was second in his pool with 6.87m, and in the women's pole vault HCA member Louise Shortland cleared 3.50m.

Of the several Woodford Green sprinters at Lee Valley, Omolulu Abiodun was the fastest clocking 10.76secs over 100m. Andrew Lastic recorded 11.00secs and a personal best over 200m of 22.44secs. There was a season's best for junior, Pamela Milla with 13.01secs as she won her 100m race.
